Andy Davison

I started standing volleyball in 1999 as a candidate referee for the 2000 Sydney Paralympic Games.

Pierre Farmer had a significant influence on me as a wonderful mentor and colleague. He assisted in my development of a thorough understanding of the Rules of the Game and technical aspects of running a tournament.

Events in which I was involved:

Sydney 1999 Olympic Test Event (NTO)

Sydney 2000 Paralympics (WOVD Referee)

2002 Asian Games, Busan (WOVD Referee)

2004 Mettmann World Standing Volleyball Championships (WOVD Referee, AOCVD Sec. General)

2005 AOCVD Zone Championship, Phnom Penh, Cambodia (WOVD Referee, AOCVD Sec. General)

2006 FESPIC Games, Kuala Lumpur (WOVD Referee, AOCVD Sec. General)

2007 Standing World Cup, Phnom Penh, Cambodia (WOVD Referee)

2009 Standing World Cup, Phnom Penh, Cambodia (WOVD Referee)

2011 WOVD Standing Volleyball World Cup, Phnom Penh Cambodia (WOVD Referee)

I retired as a standing volleyball referee in 2012.

Awards received:

Referee of the Tournament, 2007 Standing World Cup

Official post held:

Secretary General, AOCVD Zone Committee (2002 – 2006)
