

CAM

Veasna Man

I started playing standing volleyball in 1998 as a member of the CNVLD standing volleyball program.

Christopher Minko had the greatest influence on my development in the sport: he showed me how to rebuild my life through sport.

Events in which I was involved:

- 1999 - Fespics Games – Bangkok, Thailand – 2nd place
- 2000 – Paralympic Games – Sydney, Australia – 7th place
- 2001 – World Cup – Puchov, Slovakia – 4th place
- 2003 – World Cup – Rhodes, Greece – 6th place
- 2005 – World Cup – Regina, Canada – 4th place
- 2007 – World Cup – Phnom Penh, Cambodia – Bronze Medal
- 2009 – World Cup – Phnom Penh, Cambodia – Bronze Medal
- 2011 – World Cup – Phnom Penh, Cambodia – Silver Medal

Awards received:

2009 and 2011 World Cups: “Best Spiker”

I stopped playing after the 2011 World Cup because there were no further competitions.

