I started playing standing volleyball in Montreal at the Canada Cup 1997. I started because I loved the sport playing in high school and my grade school teacher had been contacted by Lawrence Flynn. I jumped at the opportunity.

Calvin Aubin and Rod Durrant had the greatest influence on me being a better and more rounded player. At 20 years old you think you know it all about the sport, but these two guys really pushed me to a place I never knew I could get to. I will never forget that as it helped me with other things outside of volleyball. I went on to coach minor baseball and hockey using similar values.

Events in which I was involved as a player included:

SILVER - 1997 Canada Cup
5th Place - 1998 World Championships
BRONZE - 1999 Pan Am Cup
BRONZE - 2000 European Invitational
SILVER – 2000 Paralympics
GOLD - 2002 World Championships
SILVER - 2003 World Cup
GOLD - 2004 World Championships
GOLD - 2005 World Cup
GOLD – 2006 World Championships

I finished playing standing volleyball in 2006.
