Jamie Ming

I started sitting volleyball in 2007 in UK when I was asked as a Medical Doctor to provide medical cover for the GB sitting volleyball team attending a training camp in the Netherlands. I already had a strong background in volleyball and joined the group.

Those who had the greatest influence on me and my development in the sport were:

Team mates
Joze Banfi
Pavel Mustafin

I attended international events between 2007 and 2009 in multiple capacities, then was involved with the following (sitting events unless otherwise stated):

2007 - Standing World Cup – Phnom Penh – Classifier
2008 - Paralympics – Beijing – VIP
2009 - European Championships – Elblag, Poland – Classifier
2010 - World Championships – Oklahoma, USA – Classifier
- ECVD Continental Cup – Kent UK - Classifier
- Paralympics – London, UK – Classifier
2013 - European Championships – Elblag, Poland – Classifier
2017- European Championships – Porec, Croatia – Classifier
2019 - World Super 6 (Women) – Tokyo, Japan - Classifier

From 2011 to present - World ParaVolley Chair of Anti-Doping Commission

This major role, over many years, has involved: -

TUE Management
Risk assessment development
Competition test planning
Results management
Whereabouts
preparing WPV's requirements for Russia during their period of sanction
Liaising with NADOs and testing agencies
